Benefits of and Policies for Classes

Benefits of Study at The Musical Offering

- Instructors are carefully selected for their expert teaching skills and are active performers in the Chicagoland area.
- Students receive recital opportunities in our newly remodeled performance venue as well as access to honors recitals and specials events at S.P.A.C.E. in Evanston.
- The Musical Offering is a local non-profit invested in giving back to the community. The school has 10+ years of outreach in neighborhood schools.
- Financial assistance is available. Auditions for scholarships are held prior to the start of each session. Flexible payment plans can be arranged.
- A referral bonus of $25 awarded to continuing students when a new student registers for private lessons or a class.

Class Policies

Sessions

- All semi-private and group classes held at The Musical Offering are offered in 8-week sessions.
- Fall 2011 session begins Tuesday, September 13th and runs through Monday November 7th.
- New students may join an on-going class at the approval of the instructor and pay on a pro-rated basis.

Attendance Policy

- Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes during a given session. There are no refunds for missed classes.
- Teachers must be notified in advance of all known absences.
- If a teacher needs to cancel a class, either the class will be rearranged or the student will be credited for the missed class at the end of the session.
- The Musical Offering is not responsible for childcare before or after a class. On-site supervision is not provided.

Payment Policy

- Payment in full for all classes is due prior to or at the start of the first class each session. Payment may be made by cash or check. Checks should be made payable to The Musical Offering.
- A $15 registration fee per student will be added to class fees during the fall and spring sessions.
- A $10 late fee will be assessed for all late payments and there is a $20 charge for all returned checks.
- The Musical Offering has a no refund policy following the first class meeting.

The Musical Offering does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, age, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital or veteran status.
